Conference Invitation

We are delighted to welcome you to the 16th International Conference on Physiotherapy, Orthopedic & Physical Rehabilitation (ICPOPR 2026), scheduled for November 23–24, 2026, in Paris, France, with virtual participation options available to ensure a comprehensive hybrid experience. This global gathering enables experts, researchers, clinicians, and practitioners from around the world to connect and collaborate seamlessly.

The theme of the conference, “Reimagining Rehabilitation: Science-Driven Solutions for Modern Physiotherapy,” reflects our commitment to advancing evidence-based practice, innovative technologies, and patient-centered care in the evolving landscape of physical medicine and rehabilitation.

ICPOPR 2026 will bring together a diverse and dynamic community, including rehabilitation specialists, physiotherapists, orthopedic experts, occupational therapists, biomedical engineers, healthcare researchers, academicians, and policymakers. The conference provides a vibrant platform for exchanging knowledge, sharing groundbreaking research, and fostering international collaborations that will shape the future of rehabilitation sciences.

Participants will gain valuable insights into the latest advancements, emerging trends, and transformative innovations in physiotherapy and orthopedic rehabilitation. Through meaningful discussions and expert-led sessions, attendees will explore solutions designed to enhance clinical outcomes, optimize patient recovery, and strengthen interdisciplinary practice.

The scientific program will feature an engaging lineup of keynote addresses, oral presentations, interactive workshops, panel discussions, and poster sessions, offering multiple opportunities to present research, showcase innovations, and build professional networks. The event is thoughtfully designed to support both experienced professionals and early-career researchers seeking to expand their expertise and global connections.

We look forward to welcoming you to ICPOPR 2026 in Paris, as we unite global leaders and emerging voices in rehabilitation to advance scientific discovery, clinical excellence, and impactful patient care. Join us in shaping the future of physiotherapy and orthopedic rehabilitation through collaboration, innovation, and shared vision.
